

K-Love has been a positive influence in our family, as well as the people we know. It offers good clean uplifting music as opposed to the sexual stations that drag you down emotionally and spiritually. It is safe for young kids (my brothers; 3 and 5 cannot listen to anything but K-love because they pick up on the dirty lyrics). It boils right down to that without K-love, the Grand Valley would be different. The last thing we need is to tear apart the good things in this world, and my family and I do believe that K-love has affected us, our community in a positive way. We do not want the LPFM broadcaster to replace K-love. And yes, I am one person, but I guarantee that it is the interest of the general public. K-love is different, K-love is uplifting. The sexual stations are many and they are all the same. It doesn't take a genius to figure out we need to hold onto God and his love; show me a man who does not have fear at the hour of his death. K-love helps us do this, and it would be ridiculous to let it disappear.
